

Dear Physiotherapist:

Your main concern is to enable your patients to be independent again. That's why you practice stair-climbing with them.

The DST is the ideal tool for achieving this goal. Just press a button & the DST adjusts electronically to your patients' precise pace.

For more information

For more information call:
Stricker & Associates
800-383-5113

Printed Press

Combination Unit:

In the flat position - it's a parallel bar!

In the elevated position - it's an adjustable stair trainer!

Advantages

- Accelerates recovery rates
- Increases patients' motivation
- Custom-programmed for patients' needs
- Saves therapists' time & effort
- Documents patients' progress
- Patients can exercise on their own

Features

- Push button controls
- Electronically adjustable stairs
- Adjustable handrail height
- Anti-slip safety covering
- Wheelchair accessible
- Easy mobility within the physio hall

Ideal for

- Rehabilitation centers
- Physiotherapy departments
- Nursing homes
- Physical therapy clinics
- Outpatient centers
- Cardiac rehab' centers

Adjust the Height of the Stairs to your Patient's Pace!